

Your Dollars at Work

Think a few dollars don't make a difference? They really do. Here are some examples of how your gift benefits those served by our member nonprofits:

A gift of $1 per pay period (or about $26 per year):

- ✓ Pays the registration fee for an information/outreach table at an ethnic festival.
Out Reach
- ✓ Provides each state senator with material about Wisconsin's clean energy potential.
Wisconsin Network for Peace & Justice
- ✓ Pays one person's tuition in a community organizing workshop.
Grassroots Leadership College
- ✓ Educates faith communities about labor issues they can help alleviate.
Interfaith Coalition for Worker Justice (photo at right)

Your gift of $5 a month or $60 per year:

- ✓ Provides 3 hours of nonpartisan voter service: helping citizens understand their rights, register to vote, and get unbiased information about the candidates.
League of Women Voters of Wisconsin Education Fund
- ✓ Supports our efforts to establish health advisory levels for unregulated drinking water contaminants such as the carcinogenic explosive DNT.
Citizens for Safe Water Around Badger
- ✓ Provides one hour of an attorney's time to offer critical legal representation.
Disability Rights Wisconsin
- ✓ Gives scholarships to students to attend the annual vigil at the School of the Americas, in Georgia, honoring those who suffered.
Community Action on Latin America

Your gift of $10 a month or $120 per year:

- ✓ Funds outreach visits to 6-7 migrant labor camps to inform workers about our services and their legal rights.
Legal Action of Wisconsin
- ✓ Helps support work to host statewide public events about expanding transit options and reducing Wisconsin's dependence on oil.
Sierra Club Foundation
- ✓ Pays for brochures going to hundreds of Latino families in Dane County.
UNIDOS Against Domestic Violence
- ✓ Allows concerned citizens here to fund a micro-loan for someone like 63-year-old Maria in Ecuador, who can buy seeds and fertilizer to allow her to make a profit in farming.
Working Capital for Community Needs (photo at right)

Thank you for giving generously to Community Shares of Wisconsin!