

Congratulations

TO OUR MEMBER GROUPS

By invitation, the Center for Family Policy and Practice attended President Obama's Father's Day remarks—as well as the President and Vice President's commemoration of Domestic Violence Awareness Month—at the White House.

Center for Media and Democracy's Senior Fellow on Health Care, Wendell Potter, was named Most Valuable Author by The Nation magazine.

Community GroundWorks was recognized in 2010 by the Madison Civics Club, with a special focus given to the East High Youth Farm Program.

Community GroundWorks Associate Director Christie Ralston was named one of "32 People to Know" by Madison Magazine in 2010.

Community GroundWorks has received the Distinguished Service Award from Madison-Dane County Public Health. They received the award for "developing land in a sustainable manner, improving food security, and providing educational programs on gardening, food preparation, nutrition, and the environment."

Jo Cauley from Disability Rights Wisconsin received a special recognition award from the ARC-Dane County.

Melanie G. Ramey, President of the League of Women Voters of Wisconsin Education Fund, received the 2010 Ruth Gordon Service Award from the Madison Area Service Clubs in recognition of Melanie's exemplary volunteer service.

OutReach Program Director Harry Straetz received a special commendation from Governor Jim Doyle for his work for LGBT quality of life.

docuScan of Wisconsin, a program of the Wisconsin Council of the Blind and Visually Impaired, received a 2010 Business Sustainability Award sponsored by In Business magazine and Sustain Dane.

Wisconsin Family Ties' Jackie Baldwin received the Community Service Award from the Wisconsin chapter of the American Academy of Pediatrics.

Wisconsin League of Conservation Voters received Wisconsin Trout Unlimited's highest honor: the Resource Award of Merit. Trout Unlimited stated, "Without Wisconsin League of Conservation Voters' leadership in conservation issues, our state would not have achieved many of its conservation successes in recent years."

612 West Main Street, Suite 200 • Madison, WI 53703 • 608.256.1066
www.communityshares.com